

“Peak a boo! I see you!”

By Roberto Bruno

The other day I heard on the news of a San Francisco meter maid abusing her job. The story stated that a meter maid was spotted (via a cell phone video camera) parking her meter maid buggy illegally in front of a store. Then she entered the store to do some personal shopping on company time. This has infuriated many San Francisco citizens for several reasons. First of all the meter maid is wasting our tax dollars so she can go personally shop. Secondly and worst of all, we San Franciscan could never get away with parking illegally. ☺ These days you never know if your actions are being recorded. With surveillance cameras just about everywhere, spy satellites and cell phone cameras, who knows who is watching us?

As creepy as it is to think we are constantly being watch, I do get comfort from Psalms 139:7-8, “Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there”. Where ever we find ourselves God will be there with us. God understands our thoughts. He comprehends the path we are on and best of all The Lord is acquainted with all our ways. How encouraging is that? We are always under the watchful eye of our heavenly Father. “... your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. If I say, ‘Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me’.” Psalms 139:10-11. There is no where, where God is not present. He is our ever present help. Some may feel uneasy that God sees their every move but not me. I feel comforted. Even when I’m up to no good the Lord loves me so much He will allow me to fail so when I come to my senses I can realize how wonderful He is. “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness”. I John 1:9. A faithful and just God is the type of God I want watching me. If the Lord was judgmental and unappeasable with a big stick it would be different. I wouldn’t want Him to see anything I was doing.

Let’s rejoice that we are covered by God’s all seeing eyes and enjoy the freedom we have in His protection. “You hem me in behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain”. Psalms139:5-6.

Grrrrr!! Not Fair!!
